

SELBORNE

The Falconer Library has earned the distinguished honor of being one of the Top 100 Libraries in the United States since 2000

From The Librarian's Desk

Libraries are evolving in many ways: ebooks, digital technology that includes online holds, and a new card catalog! Falconer Public Library will be your conduit to this change. We can help you create a new library card that will enable you to check out books, order ebooks, place holds and more. Go to www.cclslib.ent.sirsi.net. There is the Chautauqua-Cattaraugus Library System Member libraries listing; browse bestseller lists, place holds and learn about OverDrive.

Other library services include faxes/copies/magazine circulation, registered preschool Story Hour program, daily newspapers and a Notary in the Village Clerk's Office. We look forward to our FCS Selborne Classes and visits from the Hultquist and Warner Place vans, our Resource Center Visits and Methodist Garden Deposits, and aiding with Book Club Reading suggestions. We appreciate our volunteers that offer special talents and their time! YOU, our patrons, are the reason we are here! Please encourage us to help you for this continuation of literacy.

The Staff's top priority is being user friendly and dedicated to the Falconer Library users.

In 1910, the "Society of the Hall in the Grove," a local organization of graduates of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle met in Falconer. It was there that Susan Howe proposed the establishment of a library as a project of the society, and L. Theresa Benson proposed that each member contribute a book to form its nucleus. The members also gave one dollar each to start a book fund. Several members gave parties to raise money and contributions were solicited from the public. Books were kept on a shelf in Dr. William O. Smiths drug store, and later in Leonard Anderson's furniture store.
