The Falconer Library has earned the distinguished honor of being one of the Top 100 Libraries in the United States since 2000

The Library Is A 9 Time Star!

The Library Journal (November 1st, 2016 issue) announced America's Star Libraries: The Falconer Public Library is a Five-Star Award Winner! This Award is sponsored by Baker and Taylor's Bibliostat records and based on the Data released by the Institute of Museum and Library Services (MLS). The LJ Index is a national rating system designed to recognize and promote America's public libraries, to help improve the pool of nationally collected library statistics, and to encourage library self-evaluation.

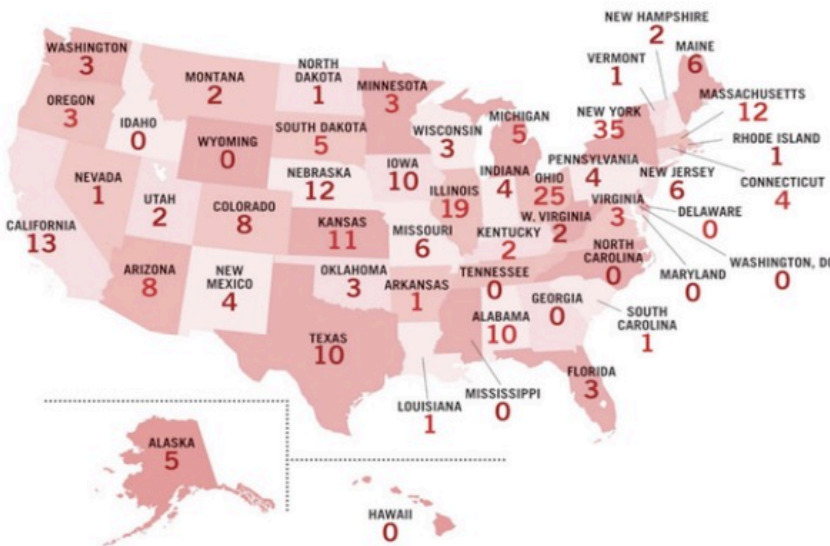

The Falconer Public Library has earned the distinguished honor of being in the top 100 libraries in the United States since 2000 - nine past years with 5 star ratings. (In 2016, 35 libraries in NY were honored) Library Manager, Sue Seamans, won the NY Times Award for Librarian of the Year in 2004 - one of 27 librarians in the US. Since then, library staff and local patrons share that honor!
